The Board of Directors is excited to announce the appointment of Veronica Chavez Neuman as the new Chief Executive Officer for The Arc of New Mexico.

Veronica was selected after an extensive search and from a pool of extremely qualified candidates. In addition to her years of supervisory and financial experience, Veronica brings an unyielding commitment and passion for the mission of The Arc. Her dedication to people with disabilities is unquestionable and her resolve to expand The Arc's presence in New Mexico exciting. We look forward to working with her.

Veronica will join our Arc family on September 01, 2017.

Please join us in welcoming her.

Sincerely,

The Arc of New Mexico Board of Directors
